Grief, Healing, Hope 37

We have arrived at Yizkor,

this intimate hour of presence with the ones we have lost.
No matter how recently or long ago they left our sides,
we take these moments to continue the conversations,
to build an enduring legacy from generation to generation.

In this community of mourners, we find comfort in one another,
as together we pray for our sorrows to ease into memory,
for our grief to blossom into new understanding, for healing
when our own pain and that of the world seem overwhelming.

May the memories of all who have died bring blessing
to those who loved them, to our community,
to the Jewish people and to the world.

Reflections

Ink on our Heart

The experience of loss can be like ink on our heart, writing a new story. And legacy, or memory, can be the ongoing letter we write to our loved ones.

Rabbi Kimberly Herzog Cohen
Winter 2025

And Then Yom Kippur…

We are tired, humbled, ecstatic with hope, crying out one last time. We deny ourselves food and drink. On this holiest of days, with nowhere to go, we go inward. We use metaphors that create a sense of urgency like "the gates begin to close" and "seal us in the Book of Life." We sing one more time of sin and repentance, rocking ourselves, hopeful that we can find the way, the path to a deeper life. A more thoughtful life. A forgiving life. And we bring our generations with us, immersing ourselves in loss and memory and the acute understanding that we are mortal. Morality is the demanding consciousness of Yom Kippur, bidding us to live better, deeper, and kinder. From dust. To dust.

Rabbi Karyn Kedar, "Unfolding: A High Holy Day Companion"

In my Darkness

In my darkness, be a light to me,
in my loneliness help me to find
a soul akin to my own.

Give me strength to live with courage;
and give me courage
to draw blessing from life,
even in the midst of suffering;
to hold fast against the storm,
and to smaile at a loved one's glance.

Rabbi Chaim Stern, Mishkan Hanefesh Yom Kippur

Reflections

May it Be...

May it be
that we go out in peace
and stride in peace
and see blessing in the works of our hands
and find grace, favor, and kindness
in the eyes of God and our fellow human beings.

May it be
that the years that wait us
be blessed and good years,
free of envy and malice
and suffused with joy and laughter,
good health of body and mind,
creativity, growth,
and love.

Rabbi Dalia Marx, author of "From Time to Time"
Scholar-in-Residence, February 6-8, 2026, Temple Emanu-El Passageways of Grieving

An excerpt

Something small and beautiful appears, filling part of the vacuum that has been left, the hole in your heart that hasn't closed. The first moment, perhaps, of healing.

Marcia Falk, "The Days Between"

Yizkor Services | 2025-2026

In addition to Yom Kippur, we honor the memories of our loved ones throughout the year at festival morning services.

In Gratitude

Temple Emanu-El is grateful to all those who have made contributions in memory of their dear departed ones.

We are grateful to the Rita Paresky Philanthropic Fund for a grant to print this Book of Remembrance. All names received by August 22, 2025 have been included in both the print and digital versions of this book.

Lighting the Yahrzeit Candle

The yahrzeit candle is lit before Yom Kippur begins and burns throughout the day, approximately 24 hours, to remind us that the light and soul of our loved ones is with us. Only one candle is necessary although some prefer to light a candle for each person no longer living. After lighting the candle, pause for a moment of meditation and memory. (There is no blessing for this ritual.)

At Home

Meditation

"I Recall"

I call (name) to mind and heart,
the texture of her/his/their life,
its/their presence in mine.

Images rise up
and fall away,
moments in the current of time —

tender, harsh,
extraordinary,
mundane,

that which gives pleasure in recollection
and that which hurts, yet resists being forgotten.

May the threads of memory be woven
into the fabric of my life
and bring healing.

Adaped from Marcia Falk, "The Days Between"

Kindling a Memorial Light

נֵר יְהוָה נִשְׁמַת אָדָם

Ner Adonai nishmat adam.

The light of God shines in our soul.
– Proverbs 20:27

(I/we) give thanks for the
blessing of life,
for companionship,
and for memory.
Our tradition teaches us that we
never lose those we love,
for love is stronger than death.

So (I/we) kindle this light now,
and as it burns,
so may the memory of (deceased)
continue to be an inspiration.

Grief, Healing, Hope

Temple is here for you.

When You Suffer a Loss: Please contact the receptionist at Temple's main number or a member of the clergy. You will be guided compassionately and sensitively through the Jewish mourning practice.

Daily Minyan: Daily Minyan Our daily minyan service meets online at 8:15AM Sunday through Friday. It provides an opportunity to fulfill the mitzvah of saying Kaddish for loved ones. On Shabbat, we invite you to say Kaddish at our services on Friday night and Saturday mornings. For the Zoom link, visit tedallas.org/prayer.

Grief Support: Temple offers ongoing grief support in a variety of ways. Meeting with clergy, the daily minyan, Shabbat and Yizkor services and small in person or online support groups are all ways we offer comfort, healing and strength to those in our community who are grieving.

Memorial Room: The Levine Memorial Room is a quiet refuge in which to pause and reflect about the people who came before us. Bronze plaques in honor of loved ones are available for purchase and installation, and you are welcome to visit the space whenever the Temple building is open.

Temple Emanu-El Cemetery and Mausoleum: Temple Emanu-El Cemetery and Mausoleum The historic Temple Emanu-El Cemetery was established on its present tranquil site on Howell Street at Lemmon Avenue in 1884; it was the second Jewish cemetery in Dallas. Early settlers in Dallas formed the Hebrew Benevolent Society in 1872 to bury their dead. Members of this society went on to establish Temple Emanu-El in 1875.
